

NOVEMBER 9, DEDICATION OF
THE ARCHBASILICA Errors? help@extraordinaryform.org OF OUR HOLY SAVIOR

As the anniversary of the dedication of a cathedral is kept as a solemn festival in all the churches of a diocese, so the dedication of the Church of St. John Lateran, the cathedral of the Supreme Pontiff, is everywhere celebrated. Since the time of Constantine the Lateran became the ordinary residence of the Popes, and may be regarded as a memorial of that long series of holy Pontiffs who inhabited it during the course of nearly ten centuries.

The walls of the Lateran, now nearly two thousand years old, have seen many important events in history and have figured in poetry and in art, while they sheltered a dynasty of Pontiffs who ruled longer than any dynasty of kings. Within them, at the suggestion of Pope Sylvester, Constantine the Great transformed or constructed the first basilica dedicated to the Savior at Rome. In the Twelfth Century, on account of the baptistry, it was dedicated to St. John the Baptist and began to be called St. John Lateran.

The basilica, after its destruction, was rebuilt by Benedict XIII and consecrated on November 9, 1726. Since that time the feast has been kept in the Universal Church.

Commemoration of St. Theodore, Martyr: St. Theodore was a soldier martyr, and suffered death at Amasea in Asia Minor in 306. After being tortured by having his flesh torn by iron hooks, he was burned. During his martyrdom he sang the verse of the Psalm: "I will bless the Lord at all times."

Et ipsi pópulus, ejus erunt, et ipse Deus cum eis erit eórum Deus: et abstérget Deus omnem lácrimam ab óculis eórum: et mors ultra non erit, neque luctus, neque clamor, neque dolor erit ultra, quia prima abiérunt. Et pracúrrens ascéndit in árborem sycómorum, ut vidéret eum; quia inde erat transitúrus. Et cum venísset ad locum, suspiciens Jesus vidit illum, et dixit ad eum: Zachæe, festínans descénde; quia hódie in domo tua opórtet me manére. Et festinans descéndit, et excépit illum gaudens. Et cum vidérunt omnes, murmurábant, dicéntes, quod ad hóminem peccatórem divertísset. Stans autem Zachæus, dixit ad Dóminum: Ecce dimídium bonórum meórum, Dómine, do paupéribus: et si quid áliquem defraudávi, reddo quádruplum. Ait Jesus ad eum: Quia hódie salus domui huic facta est: Eo quod et ipse fílius sit Ábrahæ. Venit enim fílius hóminis quærere, et salvum fácere, quod perierat.

Terrible is this place: it is the house of God, and the gate of heaven; and shall be called the court of God. (Ps. 83: 2, 3) How lovely are Thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! my soul longeth and fainteth for the courts of the Lord. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Terrible is this place: it is the house of God, and the gate of heaven; and shall be called the court of God.

God, Who year by year dost renew the day of the consecration of this Thy holy temple, and dost ever bring us again in safety to the holy mysteries, hear the prayers of Thy people, and grant that whosoever entereth this temple to seek blessings may rejoice to obtain all that he seeketh. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

O God, Who dost encompass and protect us with the glorious testimony of blessed Theodore, Thy martyr, grant us to profit by imitating him and to be supported by his prayers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

In those days, I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven, from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice from the throne, saying, Behold the tabernacle of God with men; and He will dwell with them: and they shall be His people, and God Himself with them shall be their God: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and death shall be no more, nor mourning, nor crying, nor sorrow shall be any more, for the former things are passed away. And He that sat on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.

This place was made by God a priceless mystery, it is without reproof. O God, before Whom stands the choir of angels, hear the prayers of Thy servants.

Alleluia, alleluia. I will worship toward Thy holy temple; and I will give glory to Thy name. Alleluia.

At that time, Jesus entering in, walked through Jericho. And behold there was a man named Zachæus, who was the chief of the publicans, and he was rich; and he sought to see Jesus Who He was, and he could not for the crowd, because he was of low stature. And running before, he climbed up into a sycamore-tree that he might see Him, for He was to pass that way. And when Jesus was come to the place, looking up, He saw him, and said to him, Zachæus, make haste and come down, for this day I must abide in thy house. And he made haste and came down, and received Him with joy. And when all saw it, they murmured, saying that He was gone to be a guest with a man that was a sinner. But Zachæus standing, said to the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have wronged any man of anything, I restore him fourfold. Jesus said to him, This day is salvation come to this house; because he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

O Lord God, in the simplicity of my heart, I have joyfully offered all these things; and I have seen with great joy Thy people, which are present: O God of Israel, keep this will. Alleluia.

Give heed to our prayers, O Lord, we beseech Thee that, while we pay our vows here below, we may, by Thine assistance, be worthy to attain unto everlasting rewards. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Receive, O Lord, the prayers of the faithful with offerings of sacrifices, and, by the intercession of blessed Theodore, Thy martyr, may we pass through these offices of pious devotion to heavenly glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

My house shall be called the house of prayer, saith the Lord: every one that asks therein, receives; and he who seeks, finds; and to him who knocks, it shall be opened.

O God, Who from living and chosen stones dost prepare for Thy majesty an eternal dwelling, help Thy people who call upon Thee, so that what is profitable to Thy Church in material growth may be accompanied with an increase of that which is of the spirit. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the intercession of blessed Theodore, Thy martyr, that what we touch with our lips we may receive with pure hearts. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
