Commemoration) St. Dorothy, a virgin martyr, was beheaded under Diocletian at the beginning of the Fourth Century. Legend says that at the moment of her martyrdom the lawyer Theophilus begged of her flowers of Paradise, which she sent to him.

Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God, and was found just; and in the time of wrath was made a reconciliation. There was not any found like to him, who kept the law of the Most High. Therefore by an oath the Lord made him increase among his people. He gave him the blessing of all nations, and confirmed His covenant upon his head. He acknowledged him in His blessings: He preserved for him His mercy: and he found grace before the eyes of the Lord. He glorified him in
