

St. Boniface was a native of Devonshire, England. His first attempt to convert pagans having failed, he went to Rome where he received the Pope's blessing on his mission, and then set forth with the papal authority to preach to the German tribes. He thus became the apostle and first archbishop of the Germans. While engaged in his earnest work he, with other Christians, suffered martyrdom, on June 5, 755. Pius IX extended the Office of St. Boniface to the whole Church.

INTROIT Isaiah 65: 19, 23

Exsultábo in Jerúsalem et gaudébo in pópulo meo: et non audiétur in eo ultra vos fletus et vox clamóris. Elécti mei non laborábunt frustra neque generábunt in conturbatióne: quia semen benedictórum Dómini est, et nepótes eórum cum eis. (T.P. Allelúja, allelúja.) (Ps 43: 2) Deus, áuribus nostris audívimus: patres nostri narravérunt opus, quod operátus es in díebus eórum. Glória Patri et Fílio et Spíritui Sancto, sicut erat in princípío, et nunc, et semper, et in sæcula sæculórum. Amen. Exsultábo in Jerúsalem et gaudébo in pópulo meo: et non audiétur in eo ultra vos fletus et vox clamóris. Elécti mei non laborábunt frustra neque generábunt in conturbatióne: quia semen benedictórum Dómini est, et nepótes eórum cum eis. (T.P. Allelúja, allelúja.)

Laudémus viros gloriósos et parétes nostros in generatióne sua. Multam glóriam fecit Dóminus magnificéntia sua a sæculo. In perítia sua requiréntes modos músicos, et narrántes cármina scripturárum. Hómines dívites in virtúte, pulchritúdinis stúdiu habéntes: pacificántes in dómibus suis. Omnes isti in generatióne gentis suæ glóriam adépti sunt, et in diébus suis habéntur in laudibus. Qui de illis nati sunt, reliquérunt nomen narrándi laudes eórum. Et sunt, quorum non est memória: perierunt, quasi qui non fúerint: et nati sunt, quasi non nati, et filii ipsórum cum ipsis. Sed illi viri misericórdiæ sunt, quorum pietátes non defuérunt: cum semine eórum pérmanent bona, heréditas sancta nepótes eórum, et in testaméntis stetit semen eórum: et filii eórum propter illos usque in ætérnum manent: semen eórum et glória eórum non derelinquétur. Córpora ipsórum in pace sepúlta sunt, et nomen eórum vivit in generatióne et generatióne. Sapiéntiam ipsórum narrent pópuli, et laudem eórum nuntiet Ecclésia.

I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people, and the voice of weeping shall no more be heard in her, nor the voice of crying. My elect shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth in trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their posterity with them (P.T. Alleluia, alleluia.). (Ps 43: 2) We have heard, O God, with our ears: our fathers have declared to us the work Thou hast wrought in their days. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people, and the voice of weeping shall no more be heard in her, nor the voice of crying. My elect shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth in trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their posterity with them. (P.T. Alleluia, alleluia.)

O God, Who didst vouchsafe to call a multitude of peoples to the knowledge of Thy name by means of the zeal of blessed Boniface, Thy martyr and bishop, mercifully grant that, as we venerate his festival, we may experience the benefits of his protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Let us now praise men of renown, and our fathers in their generation. The Lord hath wrought great glory through His magnificence from the beginning. Such as have borne rule in their dominions, men of great power and endowed with their wisdom, showing forth in the prophets the dignity of prophets. And ruling over the present people, and by the strength of wisdom instructing the people in most holy words. Such as by their skill sought out musical tunes, and published canticles of the Scriptures. Rich men in virtues, lovers of beautifulnes: living at peace in their houses. All these have gained glory in their generations, and were praised in their days. They that were born of them have left a name behind them, that their praises might be related. And there are some of whom there is no memorial; who are perished, as if they had never been, and are born as if they had never been born, and their children with them. But these were men of mercy, whose godly deeds have not failed. Good things continue with their seed. Their posterity are a holy inheritance, and their seed hath stood in the covenants. And their children for their sakes remain forever; their seed and their glory shall not be forsaken. Their bodies are buried in peace, and their name liveth unto generation and generation. Let the people show forth their wisdom, and the church declare their praise.

(In Paschal Time the Gradual and Lesser Alleluia are omitted and the Tract is said instead.)

Partaking of the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, that when His glory shall be revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy. If you be reproached for the name of Christ, you shall be blessed: for that which is of the honor, glory, and power of God, and that which is His spirit resteth upon you.

Alleluia, alleluia. I will bring upon him as it were a river of peace, and as an overflowing torrent the glory. Alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia. Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you that love the Lord. Alleluia. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice, the hand of the Lord shall be known to His servants. Alleluia.

At that time: Jesus seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain, and when He was sat down, His disciples came unto Him. And opening His mouth, He taught them, saying: Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are the meek, for they shall possess the land. Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted. Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after justice: for they shall have their fill. Blessed are the clean of heart; for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they that suffer persecutióne for justice' sake; for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are ye when they shall revile you and persecute you, and speak all that is evil against you, untruly, for My sake: be glad and rejoice, for your reward is very great in Heaven.

I will bless the Lord Who hath given me understanding: I set the Lord always in my sight; for He is at my right hand, that I be not moved. (P.T. Alleluia.)

Let Thy plenteous blessing descend upon these offerings, O Lord, both mercifully to work our sanctification and to make us rejoice in the solemnity of St. Boniface, Thy martyr and bishop. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

To Him that shall overcome, I will give to sit with Me in My throne: as I also have overcome, and am set down with My Father in His throne. (P.T. Alleluia.)

Sanctified, O Lord, by this saving mystery, we beseech Thee that the loving prayer of St. Boniface, Thy martyr and bishop, by whose patronage Thou hast given us to be governed, may never be wanting. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
