For St. Canute

O God, Who, for the greater glory of Thy Church, wast pleased to adorn blessed Canute the king with the palm of martyrdom and with glorious miracles: mercifully grant that walking in the footsteps of him who followed our Lord in His sufferings, we may deserve to attain eternal joys. Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Brethren, call to mind the former days, wherein, being illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions. And on the one hand indeed, by Nam et vinctis compássi estis, et rapínam bonórum vestrórum cum gáudio suscenpístis, cognoscénte vos habére meliórem, et manéntem substántiam. Nolíte itaque amíttre confidéntiam vestram, quæ magnam habet remuneratiónem. Patiéntes enim vobis necessária est: ut voluntátem Dei faciéntes reportétis promissiónem. Adhuc enim módicum aliquántulum, qui ventúrus est, véniet, et non tardábit. Justus autem meus ex fide vivit.

GOSPEL Matthew 24: 3-13

In illo témpore: Sedénte Jesu super montem Olivéti accessérunt ad eum discípuli secréto, dicéntes: Dic nobis quando hæc erunt et quod signum advéntus tui et consummationis sæculi? et respóndens Jesus dixit eis:

reproaches and tribulations, were made a gazingstock; and on the other, became companions of them that were used in such sort. For you both had compassion on them that were in bands, and took with joy the being stripped of your own goods, knowing that you have a better and a lasting substance. Do not therefore lose your confidence, which hath a great reward. For patience is necessary for you; that, doing the will of God, you may receive the promise. For yet a little and a very little while, and he that is to come, will come, and will not delay. But my just man liveth by faith; but if he withdraw himself, he shall not please my soul.

The souls of the just are in the hands of God, and the torment of death shall not touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace.

Alleluia, alleluia. God is wonderful in His Saints. Alleluia.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. Going they went and wept casting their seeds. But coming they shall come with joyfulness carrying their sheaves.

At that time: As Jesus was sitting on mount Olivet, the disciples came to him privately, saying: Tell us when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the consummation of the world? And Vidéte ne quis vos sedúcat. Multi enim vénient in nómine meo, dicéntes: Ego sum Christus: et multos sedúcent. Auditóri autem estis præ'lia et opiniónes præliórum. Vidéte ne turbémini. Opórtet enim hæc fieri sed nondum est finis. Consúrget enim gens in gentem, et regnum in regnum, et erunt pestiléntiæ, et fames, et terræmótus per loca. Hæc autem ómnia inítia sunt dolórum. Tunc tradent vos in tribulatiónem, et occident vos: et éritis ódio ómnibus géntibus propter nomen meum. Et tunc scandalizabúntur multi, et ínicem tradent, et ódio habébunt ínicem. Et multi pseudoprophétæ surgent, et sedúcent multos. Et quóniam abundábit iníquitas refrigéscet caritas multórum. Qui autem permanserit usque in finem hic salvus erit.

Accépta sit in conspéctu tuo, Dómine, nostra devótio et ejus nobis fiat supplicatióne salutáris, pro cujus solemnitate defértur. Per Dóminum nostrum Jesum Christum, Fílium

Jesus answering, said to them: Take heed that no man seduce you: For many will come in my name saying, I am Christ: and they will seduce many. And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that ye be not troubled. For these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be pestilences, and famines, and earthquakes in places: Now all these are the beginnings of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall put you to death: and you shall be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then shall many be scandalized: and shall betray one another: and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall seduce many. And because iniquity hath abounded, the charity of many shall grow cold. But he that shall persevere to the end, he shall be saved.

Our soul hath been delivered as a sparrow out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

O Lord, having regard to the prayers and offerings of Thy faithful people: that they may be pleasing to Thee on the feast day of Thy Saints, and obtain for us Thine indulgent aid. Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

For St. Canute

May our offering be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, and may it benefit us by the prayer of him on whose feast it is offered. Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who lives
