

DECEMBER 21, ST. THOMAS, APOSTLE

Errors? help@extraordinaryform.org

St. Thomas, called Didymus, that is "the twin," was probably a Galilean of lowly condition and a fisherman. He was chosen to be one of the apostles in the year 31, as can be determined from the mention of his name in the catalogue of the apostles in St. Matthew. He is reputed to have been slow of understanding and little acquainted with secular learning.

When Jesus was about to go to the neighborhood of Jerusalem in order to raise Lazarus from the dead, the other apostles tried to dissuade Him, lest the Jews stone Him. But in his enthusiastic love St. Thomas exclaimed, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him!" Again, it was at the Last Supper that the Saviour said: "And whither I go you know, and the way you know." To this St. Thomas, burning with an ardent desire to follow the Master said, "Lord, we know not whither Thou goest; and how can we know the way?" To which Our Lord replied with the beautiful words, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father but by Me." In the Gospel for today the response of Jesus to the doubt which Thomas had expressed concerning his resurrection is related, with the answer of Thomas, "My Lord and my God."

St. Thomas is said to have planted the standard of the cross among the Medes, Persians, and neighboring nations. He is called the Apostle of India. He is said to have been slain for the faith at Calamina in India; and there is a legend to the effect that he was executed by the sword or by a lance.

GOSPEL John 20: 24-29

In illo témpore: Thomas, unus ex duódecim, qui dicitur Didymus, non erat cum eis, quando venit Jesus. Dixerunt ergo ei álíi discípuli: Vídimus Dóminum. Ille autem dixit eis: Nisi vídero in mánibus ejus fixúram clavórum, et mittam dígitum meum in locum clavórum, et mittam manum meam in latus ejus, non credam. Et post dies octo, íterum erant discípuli ejus intus, et Thomas cum eis. Venit Jesus jánuis clausis, et stetit in médio, et dixit: Pax vobis. Deínde dicit Thomæ: Infer dígitum tuum huc, et vide manus meas, et affer manum tuam, et mitte in latus meum: et noli esse incrédulus, sed fidélis. Respondit Thomas et dixit ei: Dóminus meus et Deus meus. Dixit ei Jesus: Quia vidisti me, Thoma, credidísti: beáti, qui non vidérunt, et credidérunt.

Thy friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable: their principality is exceedingly strengthened. (Ps. 138: 1-2) Lord, Thou hast proved me, and known me: Thou hast known my sitting down and my rising up. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Thy friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable: their principality is exceedingly strengthened.

Grant unto us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to glory in the solemn feast of Thy blessed Apostle Thomas: that we may ever both be helped by his patronage, and with due devotion follow his faith. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Stir up, O Lord, Thy might, we beseech Thee, and come; that these who trust in Thy kindness and love, may the more speedily be delivered from all adversity. Who lives and reigns with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Brethren: You are no more strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the Saints, and domestics of God: built upon the foundation of the Apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone. In Whom all the building being framed together, groweth up into a holy temple in the Lord. In Whom you also are built together into a habitation of God in the Spirit.

Thy friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable: their principality is exceedingly strengthened. I will number them, and they shall be multiplied over the sand.

Alleluia, alleluia. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just: praise becometh the upright. Alleluia.

At that time: Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him: We have seen the Lord. But he said to them: Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said: Peace be to you. Then he saith to Thomas: Put in thy finger hither, and see my hands; and bring hither thy hand, and put it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing. Thomas answered, and said to him: My Lord and my God. Jesus saith to him: Because thou hast seen me, Thomas, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and have believed.

Their sound went forth into all the earth; and their words to the ends of the world.

We render unto Thee, O Lord, the bounden duty of our service, humbly entreating Thee to guard Thy gifts within us by the prayers of the blessed Apostle Thomas, on the feast of whose blessed martyrdom we offer Thee the sacrifice of praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

O Lord, receive, we beseech Thee, our gifts and prayers: and both cleanse us by these heavenly Mysteries, and mercifully hear us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, to entreat Thee humbly, O Lord, that Thou wouldst not desert Thy flock, O everlasting Shepherd, but through Thy blessed Apostles wouldst keep it under Thy constant protection; that it may be governed by those same rulers, whom as vicars of Thy work, Thou didst set over it to be its pastors. And therefore with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominations, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of Thy glory, saying without end:

Put thy hand and know the place of the nails, and be not incredulous, but believing.

Be present with us, O merciful God, and through the intercession of the blessed Apostle Thomas on our behalf, mercifully guard Thy Gifts bestowed upon us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

May the holy receiving of Thy Sacrament, O Lord, revive us, and, cleansing us from our former life, enable us to pass to the fellowship of Thy saving Mystery. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
